Reporting hate speech in the #EP2014 campaign

In March, ILGA-Europe* and ENAR* launched an Appeal for an election campaign free from discrimination and intolerance, urging European parties† to condemn discriminatory or intolerant remarks during the European Parliament election campaign.

An online form was launched, enabling the public to report discriminatory or intolerant incidents during the campaign. This report compiles submissions received so far.

1. Summary

17
reports

After 6 weeks of campaigning, we received 17 valid reports of hate speech against minorities.

Reports consisted mostly of incitement to hatred, prejudice or discrimination, either implicitly (6 in 10) or explicitly (4 in 10). Incidents also included attacks on the dignity of minority groups—and notably migrants, asylum-seekers and ethnic minorities. Derogatory or insulting language was also noted in several cases (4 in 10).

A large number of reports (3 in 10) originated from the United Kingdom; however, language self-selection and the collection methodology means this may not be representative of the genuine occurrence of hate speech across the campaign in the EU.

Finally, reports have mostly come from the political margins, with most coming from candidates with no European party affiliation (6 in 10), or from European parties from the radical right (2 in 10).

We will continue monitoring incidences of hate speech in the context of the campaign, and publish further updates, including possible new reactions by political parties.

* ILGA-Europe is the European Region of the International Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Trans & Intersex Association, an international non-governmental umbrella organisation working towards equality and human rights for lesbian, gay, bisexual, trans & intersex (LGBTI) people at the European level.

The European Network Against Racism (ENAR) is the only pan-European anti-racist network that combines advocacy for racial equality and facilitating cooperation among civil society anti-racist actors in Europe.

† The Appeal was signed by the Party of European Socialists (PES), the Alliance of Liberals and Democrats for Europe Party (ALDE), the European Green Party, and the Party of the European Left. The European People's Party (EPP) expressed support for the principles contained in the Appeal.

2. Detailed reports

18 February	Austria	European Alliance for Freedom
Appeal signatory	No
National party	Freiheitliche Partei Österreichs (FPÖ)
Incident	Attack on the dignity of groups or individuals Derogatory, demeaning or insulting language
Description	Current MEP and FPÖ list leader Andreas Mölzer stated that the European Union was about to become ‘a conglomerate of Negroes, an absolute chaos’. He further stated that ‘it’s how it is, everyone, the Portuguese, Estonians, Swedes, Sicilians... are making fun of us, the Germans and Austrians. We are the only ones that start working at 9:00, and not only at 11:00’. He went on to compare the EU to the Third Reich.
Source	Süddeutsche Zeitung <sup>1</sup>
Reactions	Ample public condemnation. On 8 April, Mr Mölzer pulled out of the election.
19 March	Netherlands	European Alliance for Freedom
Appeal signatory	No
National party	Partij voor de Vrijheid (PVV)
Incident	Implicit incitement to hatred, prejudice or discrimination
Description	On local election night, party leader Geert Wilders addressed his supporters at the results evening for the PVV. He asked the audience whether they wanted ‘more or less Moroccans in The Hague and the Netherlands’. To this the audience chanted ‘Less, less, less!’ Wilders replied he would take care of it.

Reactions	Ample public condemnation

25 March	Hungary	(No European party affiliation)
	Appeal signatory	No
	National party	Új Magyarország Párt (ÚMP)
	Incident	Implicit incitement to hatred, prejudice or discrimination
	Description	A poster was disseminated with the slogan ‘Hungarian, works, heterosexual. Doomed for extinction? No.’, featuring a panda from the logo of environment NGO WWF.
	Source	Online poster and press reports <sup>3</sup>
	Reactions	The poster was criticised publicly. In response, ÚMP issued the following statement: ‘In Hungary the liberal media stigmatises those who stand up for the large silent majority. Currently in Hungary those who are Hungarians, work and are heterosexual suffer a disadvantage. ÚMP speaks out against this!’
1 April	United Kingdom	Alliance of European National Movements
	Appeal signatory	No
	National party	British National Party (BNP)
	Incident	Attack on the dignity of groups or individuals Explicit incitement to hatred, prejudice or discrimination Derogatory, demeaning or insulting language
